

DEPARTMENT OF MEDICAL EDUCATION

University of Health Sciences, Lahore

Khayaban-e-Jamia Punjab, Lahore – 54600, Pakistan

UAN: +9242 111-33-33-66 (ext.309)

Email: medicaleducation@uhs.edu.pk

SKILLS IN EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP & MANAGEMENT (SELM)

Educational leadership and management are mandatory requirement for all those involved in managing and leading the postgraduate training programs. Through this Workshop University of Health Sciences aims to inculcate the necessary skills required by all the educational leaders involved in teaching and learning of postgraduate programs.

Intended Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the workshop participants will be able to:

1. Differentiate between Leadership, Governance & Management
2. Describe different leadership models that are used in education
3. Recognize different Leadership Roles in their own context
4. Identify leadership competencies from the global frameworks that are most applicable to local context
5. Develop a strategic plan for current and new educational programs including vision mission and values
6. Discuss the competencies required for leading effective and efficient teams
7. Identify the leadership skills for managing and implementing educational change
8. Recognize the importance of incorporation of educational technology in education
9. Describe the importance of designing and conducting educational research to generate evidence in local context
10. Plan resources both human and financial for successful running of educational programs
11. Evaluate educational programs in line with local and global accreditation standards
12. Develop strategic partnerships both local and global for recognition and globalization of educational programs
13. Prepare the application for approval of new programs and departments for submission to both governmental and non-governmental organization
14. Establish a framework for educational management of the program, faculty, staff, and trainees for smooth running of all the educational activities.